

PALACE WOOD

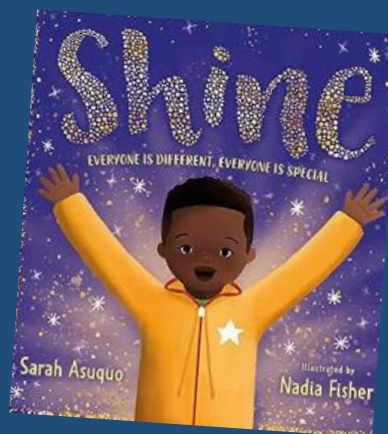

Recommends

This new school year sees us grapple with new ideas and themes. This term the big question is of community. In the library the children can find specific books about school community, the community as a whole and children's own communities. This selection of brand-new titles touch on the ideas of communities and the way we fit into them.

Deep

by Stephen Hogtun

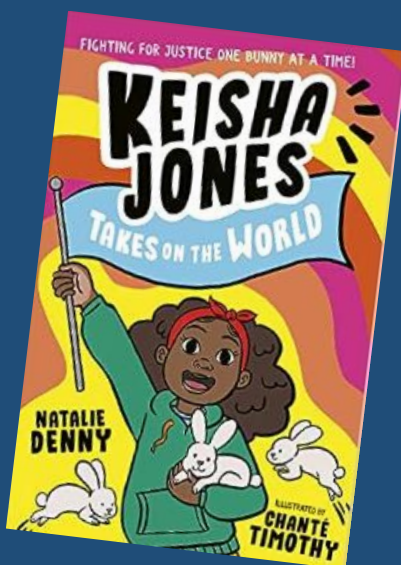

Shine

by Sarah Asuquo

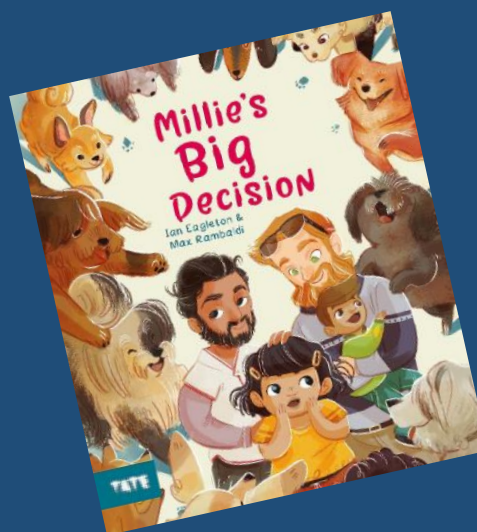

The council of Good Friends

by Nikesh Shukla

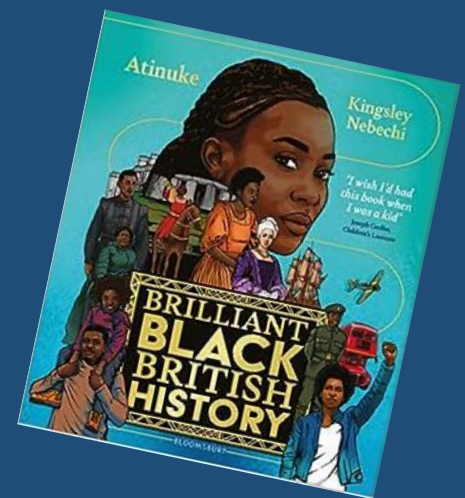

Keisha Jones takes on the world

By Natalie Denny

Millie's Big Decision

By Ian Eagleton

Brilliant Black British History

By Atinuke