

Year 5 - Term 5 - Book Warmer

'The 1000 year old boy' by Ross Welford

Award-winning author Ross Welford offers a funny and heartwarming tale about Alfie Monk, a 1,000-year-old boy who can remember the last Viking invasion of England. Back in his 'real' childhood in Viking times, Alfie has been frozen in time by an Elixir of life that has made him immortal.

Alfie Monk, the main character, is challenged by finding a different way to live. He embarks on a mission to find acceptance.

Ross Welford's historical and geographical touches provide an unusual setting for the themes of family, friendship and growing up. Can you design a poster representing family and friendship?

Our theme this term:

Citizenship

The reason for the title is because Alfie has lived for a 1000 years. Could you research what life was like in England 1000 years ago?

Other books by Ross Welford:

