

Year 6 – Term 5 – Book Warmer Thornhill-Pam Smy

As she unpacks her belongings in her new bedroom, Ella is irresistibly drawn to the big old house that she can see out of her window. Surrounded by overgrown gardens, barbed wire fences and 'keep out' signs, it looks derelict. The house has a story to tell. She is sure of it.

Also by Pam Smy

Thornhill has parallel plotlines; one is told through text and the other through pictures. You might like to explore the following texts which also use incredible illustrations alongside the text to help tell the stories.

- The Invention of Hugo Cabret by Brian Selznick
- Wonderstruck by Brian Selznick

:

Find out more about being an illustrator:

Our theme this term:

